

Jezebel

Chely Wright

Hey hey hey
I give him love, the best I can
But you don't seem to understand
It's not always deep but it's always true
And he does not belong to youHey, I do not forgive and I do not forget
I will fight for love until the deathJezebel, save your charms
He'll be back here in my arms
Oh how quickly you forget
He's not yours yet
He is not yours, not yetGonna throw on this cotton dress
Put lilac scent on the back of my neck
I walk barefoot down that mountainside
Straight to your door, girl you can't hide'Cause I do not forgive and I do not forget
I will fight for love until the deathJezebel, save your charms
He'll be back here in my arms
Oh how quickly you forget
He's not yours yet
He is not yours, not yetStanding out in the pourin' rain
Callin' out my lover's name
I know he won't leave me in the cold
Send my baby home, send my baby homeJezebel, save your charms
He'll be back here in my arms
Oh how quickly you forget
He's not yours yet
He is not yours yet
No he's not yours, never
