Angels Welcome Us

Pyogenesis

[Music & Lyrics: Flo V. Schwarz]Whenever I'll pass away even if it hurts
I wish that all my friends'd die we would hear the birds March up to heaven's front door which is all locked up We'd kindly ask for entrance
AND THE ANGELS WELCOME US
I'd ask if we could stay here just a little while One angel would come closer and answer by my side:
"Eternity's forever
you certainly can trust" Respectfully I'd mention
THAT THE ANGELS WELCOME US
Angels welcome us
At the heavens gate they will wait
Angels welcome us
End of all days no one stays Politely we'd salute them and take that 1st small step even if we know that to enter means we're dead I'd come up full of wonder what an angel does He asks me what I'd expect
"THAT THE ANGELS WELCOME US"
"I'd like to have a room with panoramic view"
He answeres that they don't have and why we'd need it, too I quickly reply "sleeping" and he that no one does
"And now that you are angels
YOU ARE ONE OF US"
Angels welcome us
At the heavens gate they will wait
Angels welcome us
