

The Smell of the Sound

Red Fang

Body of water
Lightning for eyes
You and I Somebody's daughter
Some mother's son
We are one You are
That's all that you are that's all that you are
I am
That's all that you see, all that's left of me
We are Oh, you will never be alone now
I am always there x2 Somebody's daughter
Some mother's son
One and one She breathes underwater
I speak to the sea
We are three You are
That's all that you are that's all that you are
I am
That's all that you see, all that's left of me
We are You are
That's all that you are that's all that you are
I am
That's all that you see, all that's left of me
We are
