Higher Ground

Vanessa Williams

Walk me over this horizon Let the sun's light warm my face

Once again the times are changing

Once again I've lost my wayWhile the words of ancient poets

Fall like dust upon my shoes

Greed has grabbed me of my vision

Turned my heart from higher truthsSo take my hand and lift me higher

Be my love and my desire

Hold me safe in honor bound

Take my heart to higher groundI have walked too long in darkness

I have walked too long alone

Blindly clutching fist of diamonds

That I found were only stonesI would trade the wealth of ages

For a warmer hand to hold

Though the path of life is narrow

But it leads the streets of goldSo take my hand and lift me higher

Be my love and my desire

Hold me safe in honor bound

Take my heart to higher groundIn this world we move through shadows

Never sure of what we see

While the truth abides between us

Come and share the truth with meSo take my hand and lift me higher

Be my love and my desire

Hold me safe in honor bound

Take my heart to higher ground
