Today

Barry Ryan

Today, I thought that every dance would have a dancer.
Today, I thought that every singer had a song,
But today, I learned that I was wrong.

Today, I thought that every mother had a father.
Today, I thought that every father had a son,
But today, I found that I was wrong.

(Chorus:)
Don't ask me why the seasons change,
It's
Don't ask me why today's today,
Yesterday is not tomorrow.
[Au?er auf Hindi, da hei?t beides "kal", aber die Hindus glauben ja
Auch an den Kreislauf der Wiedergeburten, kleine Anmerkung von mir]

Today, I thought that every question had an answer.
Today, I thought that every answer was the proof,
But today, I learned the truth.

[Chorus]

Today - yesterday - yesterday
