Over the Line

Pentagram

You realize your future
Children gone insane
Devil never ending painYou'll never be immortal
Of never be unborn
I'm the one to send you alone
Over, over the lineNightmares full of fear
One touch, you disappear
Diggin your own grave,
Do you think you're brave?I rule you blind
I read your mind
I can hear you cry,when your fly!
Over, Over the lineYou better pray before you die!
Flying in your dreams
Pleasure into lies
Sex no satisfachion
Terror in your eyesA soul will never rest
Closer to his death
You're ready for your last walk alone!
Over, Over the line
