

Underground Girl

Blondie

She's an underground girl, in her underground world
She never comes around, she stays underground
Ask her what's her trip, she just bites her lip
She's the coolest girl around, she's the girl from underground
She's the girl who's always right
She's the one who gets uptight
Ask her how she's been, she'll give you some skin
Well, hey, everybody gonna follow her down
Well, hey, everybody's gonna go underground
Well, hey, everybody wants to be on her side
No one's around she's gonna take you for a ride
She's the coolest girl around, she's the girl from underground
Oh, I don't wanna brag but I know her bag
Ask her where she's from, she's always playing dumb
Well, hey, everybody gonna follow her down
Well, hey, everybody's gonna go underground
Well, hey, everybody wants to be on her side
No one's around she's gonna take you for a ride
She's the coolest girl around, she's the girl from underground
If you beat her with a whip, she just thinks it's hip
You can see her at night, never in the light
Well, hey, everybody gonna follow her down
Well, hey, everybody's gonna go underground
Well, hey, everybody wants to be on her side
No one's around she's gonna take you for a ride
Here we go
Where are we going? I don't know
Whoa, it's getting dark down here
We're going way far down, I think it's getting too deep
I need quaaludes, my legs are shaking
