There Is a Ghost

Marianne Faithfull

There is a ghost
And it goes out
On the land
On the landIt's lifted up
It feels and flows
On many hands
On many handsOh, my lover
Oh, my lover
Never was there another
Where has my loverman goneThere is a dream
You've had before
And forgot many times
So many timesWhen you remember who I am
Just call
When you remember who I am
Just callWhen you remember who I am
Just call
When you remember who I amThere is a tree
But its leaves have gone
For what it seem
It stands aloneOh, my lover
Oh, my lover
Gonna, gonna find another
Where has my loverman goneAway, away
Across the land
Across the land
Across the land
