Cafe 405

The Vandals

Watching her at the mall she don't know me at all - Hope no employee over hears - Think I'm in love with you Red, Yellow, White, & Blue - Seems I've been watching her for years, - It brings a smile to my face as she hops with style and grace - Way beyond 9 to 5, she's keeping hope alive - Cafe 405 - I'd always keep her warm in that silly uniform - Tell her every day that she's the best - Just wanna be with her, I'd never chat on her - Wit someone at Panda Express - And nothing else makes me tick like when she's on that Pogo Stick - I wish I wasn't afraid, she's making lemonade - One day our love will arrive, so glad to be alive - I'm always flattered when my hot dog's gettin' battered - She's gettin' better at it every day - Shopping mall renegade, she's makin' lemonade
