Wicked

Symphony X

Alone I traveled through the mountains
Led by a star fading west
When I came upon an ancient ruin of a church and it was there I stopped to rest
Then the black and gloomy night that chased my footstepscrashed down on me like a wave
Whispering through the trees and eerie breezecarried a voice beckoning me to be her slave
In a whisper she said...Burn forever
Leave never from my arms
From the black and twisting shadows rose a woman Embrace the nightand long dark hair flowing down around her thighs beauty alluring to the eyeOh her devilish grin, her moonlit skin
As she approached I felt the evil growing stronger
Frozen in my place, she kissed my face I waltz with the wicked within and in a storm of passion bathed me in sin
In the madness...she said...Leave never from my armsBurn forever Embrace the nightThen she weaved a mist - and cast me into the shadows"Come with me, love eternally, forever mine"
"Set me free - in death we'll dance eternally forever and ever..."washed over me like wave
As so the light, cast down from the heavens,
I awoke, it seems, from some crazy dream only to find I was standing at her grave
In my nightmare...she saidLeave never from my arms
Burn foreverEmbrace the night
Burn forever
Leave never from my arms
Don't ever leave me- never leave meBurn forever
Embrace the nightLeave never from my arms
