

Avalanche

Hundred Reasons

The avalanche
we strode towards is nothing too us at all with all its force we know it cannot ever conceive to stand in our way[CHORUS] condescending
chased it to well
we're the first ones
start our lives here and changing patterns don't take a toll we won't forget why we are here with our hands held together, the clouds part as if they knew not to stand in our way[Chorus]x2
