Bulb Went Black

Johnny Flynn

You got your little heart set
Waiting for the dawn.
You been brainstorming
By my place in the sun.
And my bulb went black
And a thousand diamondbacks
Came slithering, and humming.....

We built a little bonfire
By the Tucson bridge.
You were dreaming of the crossing
I was staring at the edge.
And my jaw went slack
And a thousand razorbacks
Came charging, screaming.....

Ooooohooooohooooohooooohooooh.....
