

Kiss and Tell

G. Love & Special Sauce

Don't kiss and don't tell
You gonna get yourself in trouble
Your true love will leave you
You did wrong that's why she said so long Don't you find another girlfriend
It seemed to be last night
I mean the sweetest little sunburn
The sweet sugar momma that's alright You shouldn't be satisfied
With that look in her eye
Oh don't you miss her voice
I miss her and her mind So don't kiss and don't tell
You gonna get yourself in trouble
Your true love will leave you
You did wrong that's why she said so long I could only kiss the back of my arm
My cold cold home was surely melt
But then I do it all the way and
Well the mess [Incomprehensible] So don't kiss and don't tell
You gonna get yourself in trouble
Well, your true love will leave you
You did wrong that's why she said so long Oh all these fine women they know what's going on Man you thought that you was all alone
But she could tell by the moon
And she walked b-bye so
No no no no Hey come with me
