Seventh Wave

Grim Skunk

I wake up at the break of dawn
My mind is still and my spirit's calm
Wind at my back and open skies
I let go and I close my eyes
Got this feeling, this wicked feeling
That something heavy's headed out my wayI might have to wait
Good shit's hard to find
I don't really care
I don't really mind
Catch the seventh wave
Leave it all behindYou want to know if I believe
If something better is waiting for me
Behind the clouds, is there sunshine
I let go and I close my eyesSomething's gonna breakI have wondered a thousand times
Is that mountain hard to climb
Behind the clouds is there sunshine
I let go and I close my eyes... Something's gonna break ...
