

Golden Coin (Slow Jam)

Christi Warner

Verse One

There's something wrong
Or life's got issues (hey yeah-yeah)
Day by day we're hurting
We're soaking in tears, living in fear
My eyes believe we're lost in sin
Oh hope is what I least have
I wanna take a stand but It's so hard to make a difference

Chorus

If I told you I need a golden coin
Would you pass it on or keep it
Ja ja ja ja ja ja ja ja ja
If I told you I need a golden coin
Would you pass it on or keep it
(No need to lie to yourself)
Gotta keep it real, keep it true and be yourself

Verse Two

We're still waiting on paradise
The Promised Land!
Day by day we fake a smile
Pretending is the norm of life
We make promises but don't deliver
My eyes tell me I'm needed
But these hands won't (won't) get busy
Oh my heart won't feel a shame
When did it get so bad?

I guess paradise is lost
Children are hurting
When you walk the streets
Children are lost
Day by day they're asking for a dime
Then I heard this baby crying
Too young to know she lost her innocence

This must be hell
â€™Cause we donâ€™t seem to care no more

Chorus

If I â€™toldâ€™ you I need a golden coin
Would you pass it on or keep it
Ja ja ja ja ja ja ja ja
If I â€™toldâ€™ you I need a golden coin
Would you pass it on or keep it
(No need to lie to yourself)
Gotta keep it real, keep it true and be yourself

Breakdown

You got these (eyes)
These (hands)
This (voice)
Donâ€™t let it be in vain

Lyrics submitted by Ronny.

Lyrics provided by
<https://damnlyrics.com/>