

Ashes (Featuring Matt Tuck)

Black Tide

Try to forget what I did
Guilt beginning to settle in
Let's not pretend that it's alright
I could not stay to watch us fall apart I left you behind with nothing, no one
I left myself with these wounds, this pain (and now) You are nothing but ashes left of all I once knew
You are no more than a memory
Burning with the truth Save us both from the heartache
Was it so hard to walk away?
You are innocence at it's best
I do not deserve what you offer I left you behind with nothing, no one
I left myself with these wounds, this pain (and now) You are nothing but ashes left of all I once knew
Burning with the truth Nothing but ashes I left you behind with nothing, no one
I left myself with these wounds, this pain (and now, now, now) You are nothing but ashes left of all I once knew
You are no more than a memory
Burning with the truth Nothing but ashes!
