Sold Out

Rotten Sound

Our minds are fed every day
The Internet feeds our needs
And we follow every single word
That has ever been toldIt's time to get sick
Sicker than you ever were Sicker than anybody else was
To stick the sickness
Into pieces of our mindsDo not be scared
Today is your day
Do not feel any pain
As this day was already sold
Sold outWe are spoon-fed with bent truth
We're taking it as if it were something new
Our minds are the subject of a global fraud
It is mindless to ignore it
And not to see through it all
