

Flying Without Wings

Soulwax

If love ever comes barging in like that again, that's it, I'm calling security.
If time ever tries to pull one of those stunts again, you'd better believe, it ain't me, it ain't me.
'cause everything you try to conceal is everything you want to reveal
flying without wings
i wish i just couldn't feel a thing it goes to show: you never know
