

Singing With the Wind

Melissa Ferrick

You are lost tonight
I could be your friend
We are worth nothing
If weâ€™re not worth the fight
So take your head and rest it on my patience
Love only gets bigger if we allow it to be tested
And Iâ€™m
Iâ€™m in the ring
And youâ€™ve left me
Sitting in the corner singing with the wind

So sad behind your eyes
I canâ€™t get close
So far from me are your familyâ€™s clothes
You donâ€™t even fit me right
My best friend knows
That Iâ€™m killing time out here till my heart comes home

Iâ€™m
Iâ€™m in the ring
And youâ€™ve left me
Sitting in the corner singing with the wind
In the corner singing with the wind,
Iâ€™m singing with the wind

So go take your body out, honey,
And numb your knees
If you canâ€™t feel your legs
Then it ainâ€™t you walkin away
But you better get ready
Cos here comes the moon
To take you through Saturn
Till you return to you

But I
Iâ€™ve gotta let you go
With love
Sitting in the corner singing with the wind

Lyrics submitted by Jack Fox.

Lyrics provided by
<https://damnlyrics.com/>