

The Great Unknown

Tim Stop

Isn't today the only day that we're gonna see?
Oh isn't what I want right here in front of me?
Isn't it love that keeps you here when you wanna leave?
Maybe we found it when you found me A day for a day
An eye for an eye
Evil will rise when good men stand by
Praise to the hero dying alone
Raise one up to the great unknown We walked along the edge of a frozen sea where so many soldiers fought to keep us free
Brave and cold there in the face of the enemy
So they did, and so will we A day for a day
An eye for an eye
Evil will rise when good men stand by
Praise to the hero dying alone
Raise one up to the great unknown To the great unknown.... A day for a day
An eye for an eye
Evil will rise when good men stand by
Praise to the hero dying alone
Raise one up to the great unknown A day for a day
An eye for an eye
Evil will rise when good men stand by Praise to the men who fell in the fields who gave up their souls freely to the great unknown
