

One Million Years (Stereo Mix)

Robin Gibb

I'm dead, my life's been sold
All my years are cold
No trees to hide my head
All my roads are redAnd in the Easter
I will see that same old sun that shone
And in the winter
I will stand in seas of snow aloneI will wait for you, yeah
Your eyes will shine like new, yeah
I close my eyes and you're nowhere
And I'll wait for you
For one million yearsMy face has long been wet
Ever since we met
We wed - I knew she'd stay
Then I passed awayAnd in the Easter
I will see that same old sun that shone
And in the winter
I shall stand in seas of snow aloneI will wait for you, yeah
Just like you want me to, yeah, oh
I close my eyes and you're nowhere
And I'll wait for you
For one million yearsAnd I'll wait for you
For one million years
