Crumble

The Suntones

Everyone I know can go to hell
My so called friends and family as well
If I could I would pull off the fight
I'm trying to sleep off the crimson light.
Once more, don't cry
They will die they are ordinary girls
I hear, your cries
You and I will dominate the world
Crumble like you mean it
I've waited so long to be happy
Noone ever loved you
Like we do
Like I do
I can't feel my legs tonight
Laying down cause nothing here is right

I'm sick of being so god damn polite
Nothing you can say will stop me tonight
Crumble like you mean it
I've waited so long to be happy
Noone ever loved you
Like we do
Like I do
They see this room
And they just face
They crowd around
And they kiss your face
And your friends are here
To lift your heart
But noone knows just who you are
We are everyone's friends
