Fall Through the Cracks

Big Wreck

So I won't hear
Unless you tell me to
And I won't see
Unless I look for you
'Cause my opinions,
They don't mean that much to me
So if they're clashing
I'll trash 'em happilyLet me fall through your cracks again
You only notice now and then
'Cause I've made this mistake before
I was only coming back for more
So close your door
I'm back for moreSo don't be fooled
(mmm) by what you see
'Cause I fully realize
What was happening to me
Apologies
Well, I don't know what else to say
It was never meant to be
But I had fun anywayLet me fall through your cracks again
You only notice now and then
(Well) I've made this mistake before
I was only coming back for more
So close your door
I'm back for more
