Divided

Paradise Lost

This your only grace
The art of conversation
Regarding common sense
As merely an inflictionDivided we stand
Divided we stand
Divided we standMaybe you're content
Relying on religion
You steal without consent
Just consummates my theoryDivided we stand
Divided we standDivided we'll stand
Regardless we'll fall
How subtle the words
We've come to knowDivided we stand
Determined to fall
Just like this hollow world
That sleeps inside of meDivided we stand
Divided we standDivided we stand
Divided we stand
