

Divided

Paradise Lost

This your only grace
The art of conversation
Regarding common sense
As merely an infliction
Divided we stand
Divided we stand
Divided we stand
Maybe you're content
Relying on religion
You steal without consent
Just consummates my theory
Divided we stand
Divided we stand
Divided we'll stand
Regardless we'll fall
How subtle the words
We've come to know
Divided we stand
Determined to fall
Just like this hollow world
That sleeps inside of me
Divided we stand
Divided we stand
Divided we stand
Divided we stand
