Madhouse

Bombshell Rocks

Step into the worldwide madhouse
Meet kings and fanatic believers
Come, play the game of chance among
Noble men and plain deceiversIt hits me with the speed of a bullet
That's just left the muzzle of a gun
And it's just like a roller coaster
Everything carries onOutside the nightly traffic
And the sound of an ambulance
All I get is the feeling
I've caught the relevanceIt's a madhouse
The battle begins
On my doorstep
Trying to get inIt's a madhouse
The battle begins
On my doorstep
Trying to get inThe neighborhood sleeps pretty unknowing
While madness surely wakes me up
The fear I feel, is it unfounded?
I'm awake watching madness nonstopIt hits me with the speed of a bullet
That's just left the muzzle of a gun
And it's just like a roller coaster
Everything carries onIt's a madhouse
The battle begins
On my doorstep
Trying to get inIt's a madhouse
The battle begins
On my doorstep
Trying to get inIt hits me with the speed of a bullet
That's just left the muzzle of a gun
And it's just like a roller coaster
Everything carries onIt's a madhouse
The battle begins
On my doorstep
Trying to get inIt's a madhouse
The battle begins
On my doorstep
Trying to get in
