

Wilma's Rainbow

Helmet

You heard about, "Be your own man"
You talk a lot and loud
Illustrate the obvious boy
You're mentally endowed Watershed year comes
You flush with fever
The richest junk dealer Honestly, a book you read once
Let you think in rhymes
The old extreme sits pale and molds
Now for the millionth time Wilma's rainbow
Of peaceful colors
The richest junk dealer
