

Prettier Than Me

The Muffs

My dreams are prettier than me
If I close my eyes, this is what I see
You are never there and you'll never see
Never mind the truth
Never mind, you'll always be the same
Lysin' all the time, do you ever sleep?
Wake up feelin' fine, you don't even care
I can never be prettier for you
I'm only ever prettier for me
Never mind the truth you'll never see
Never mind, you mean nothing to me
Never mind I have no place to go
Never mind, you'll never ever know
My dreams are flying through my head
When I go to sleep, will I wake up dead?
But I will forget and I'll never be
Prettier for you
I'm only ever prettier for me
Never mind the truth you always say
Never mind the dreams that went away
Never mind, I have no place to go
Never mind, you'll never ever know
Never mind the truth you'll never see
Never mind, you mean nothing to me
Never mind, I have no place to go
Never mind, you'll never ever know
You'll never know
You'll never know
