Even Though

Morcheeba

Constant drifting space, no fear by a pepper moon
Look at all the waste out here, did we peak too soon?
All the deadly dreams we had that I can't believe
The universal messages that we don't receive
Even though we know it's forever changing
Even though we know, we lie and wait
Even though we know the hidden danger
I hope it's not too late
Slowly follow shining stars through the solar flare
I'm on borrowed time right now, running low on air
It's a pity you can't see such a travesty
Gonna give myself to the deep majesty
Even though we know it's forever changing
Even though we know, we lie and wait
Even though we know the hidden danger
I hope it's not too late
La, na, na, naa
La, na, na, ne, naa
La, na, na, naa, na, naa
Even though we know it's forever changing
Even though we know, we lie and wait
Even though we know the hidden danger
I hope it's not too late
Even though we know it's forever changing
Even though we know we don't have long
Even though we know there's the hidden danger
I hope we don't go wrong
Even though we know it's forever changing
Even though we know we lie and wait
Even though we know the hidden danger
I hope it's not too late
La, na, na, naa
La, na, na, ne, naa
La, na, na, naa, na, naa
