

Stay Up

Revent

When the world finds a way to bring you down
And the waves are crashing right at your feet

When the reaper offers to take your hand and harvest your soul
Leave the light on and feed the fire to burn away the cold

Nothing can kill me
Iâ€™m always safe
No matter how hard I seem to beg

Nothing can break me
Iâ€™m not afraid
No matter how many punches I take

Nothing can change me
Always in place
Nothing can push me out of the way
And still I stay

When the reaper offers to take your hand and harvest your soul
Leave the light on and feed the fire to burn away the cold

Nothing can kill me
Iâ€™m always safe
No matter how hard I seem to beg

Nothing can break me
Iâ€™m not afraid
No matter how many punches I take

Nothing can change me
Always in place
Nothing can push me out of the way
And still I stay

And the moment is nothing that I can erase
