Cats On Trees

You won't found him, anywhere he's gone for good, lost for everybodyI hope to hear from you, I hope one day some inspired by you will be beter people I think I see him everywhere Even gone, I feel around us I hope to hear from you, I hope one day some inspired by you will be better menI have to see me as I am I wanna embrace all the pain
And just want to believe in you
Forgive me and forgive us
just call to all of us all this journey to come back to youI have to see me as I am
I wanna embrace all the pain
And just want to believe in you
Forgive me and forgive us
just call to all of us all this journey to come back to yououh ouhWe are searching, everywhere Answers held inside, for a really long time Hope you hear from you, I hope one day some inspired by you will be better menWould you find me?
would you find me as I am?
would you try with me?
would you try the best you can?I have to see me as I am
I wanna embrace all the pain
And just want to believe in you
Forgive me and forgive us
just call to all of us
I wanna embrace all the pain
And just want to believe in you
Forgive me and forgive us
just call to all of us all this journey to come back to yououh ouhwould you find me as I am?
Would you try the best you can?
Wold you find me as I am?
Would you try the best you can?I have to see me as I am
And just want to believe in you
Forgive me and forgive us

just call to all of us
I wanna embrace all the pain
And just want to believe in you
Forgive me and forgive us
just call to all of us
I wanna embrace all the pain
And just want to believe in you
Forgive me and forgive us
just call to all of us
I wanna embrace all the pain
And just want to believe in you
Forgive me and forgive us
just call to all of us
all this journey to come back to you
