

Hard Luck Kid

Beach Slang

I hardly ever listen cause it's all a lie
Almost everything is a waste of time
I never really cared and I never really tried
It never really matters so whatever, never mind
I'm mostly kind of horny but that's half a lie
I got a pretty clean heart but a dirty mind
Got a foot in the gutter, the other in the light
I was born all wrong but I'm dying all right
I'm a hard luck kid, so why even try?
I'm a nowhere bum, I'm dumb, I don't mind
Nothing really happens if you think it might
Nothing really changes when you change your mind
I try to shake it off, try to get alive
Really I'm okay, kinda getting by
I'm a hard luck kid, so why even try?
I'm a nowhere bum, I'm dumb, I don't mind
I'm a hard luck kid, so why even try?
I'm a nowhere bum, I'm dumb, I don't mind
