

Blown Away

Steel Train

So blown away by all the faces and dreamers
I'm no weaker than you dear
I took a ride and I saw you inside
A soul that lives at rest
Are you done for?
But you had a lot to say
Did I take it a different way? Some will stand and some will leave
But you, you'll do what you will
'Cause I'm dreamin' as you're leavin'
Shine bright as I shine the light
On the love that took my best, best luck girl
'Cause you got a ways to go
Crawlin' your way back home And this was the last cry
'Cause I'm dyin'
You can take my good plans
'Cause I'm in trouble now I held the door for you to explore
As you stood head in the clouds
And I'm leavin' 'cause you're dreamin'
You clear the smoke and learn
How to float high in the air
Oh as I glare, you took it away to see
The person you'll never free oh And this was the last cry
'Cause I'm dyin'
You can take my good plans
'Cause I'm in trouble now So lift your head and shine
