Black Mozart (feat. Inspectah Deck)

Raekwon

You gotta get that money no matter what you do
You gotta get that money and represent your crew
And keep it trueAs reaper stay spray, still niggas are smoked
4 in his pocket, a diamond-up chain and some coke
Champion hood, the goodies in the brown back
By the radiator near the cookies and the bundles of dope
Fishscalers, I live in elevators and gross
All this paper, profit maker lay there and post
Wit them Adidas that Bruce wore, stay in a juice bar
All I know if you saw me you thought I was broke
Black yo, I been hustlin' since niggas was bustin' guns
And scufflin', and jumpin' niggas over some coats
We played the S&S rooftop Latin Quarter Polo popes
Who hung out wit all the apers and goatsYou gotta get that money no matter what you do
You gotta get that money and represent your crew
And keep it trueI used to scramble hard
Tadio strapped to the handlebars
50 deep in the lobby large rockin' camoflauge
Dark ceaser holdin' my nuts, played the buildin' front
Fifth of Henny, throw a little snow in the blunt
Just growin' up schooled by O.G.'s, holdin' those enough
Daily new drama unfold, they popped him over what?
It's so rough, nobody know him, so what?
Ayo the money's close by, homie, show me the stuff
Barrel-hoppin' coppin bricks, bags, burners and kicks
City slicker circlin' the strip, workin' them tricks
Like Friday night cruise in the coup, new Velour suit
Fruit-flavored kicks takin' flicks out in 40 deuce
Farmer jeans, hammer swings, tucked in the loop
How they hit Miss Fisher, they was bustin' at Soup?
Up in 54, underground, Parrot and Q
Made man wit the grey Shands wrapped in the blue
Stay flam' every day fam, stackin' my loot
80 grams in the cake pan, packages flew
Sippin' passionfruit Alize in back of the oh!We soldiers, boy, we soldiers
Break case, 100-dollar-bill boulders
We soldiers, boy, we soldiers
Big head, I thought I told ya!
Big head, I thought I told ya!You gotta get that money no matter what you do

You gotta get that money and represent your crew
And keep it true
