

HOMERUN

SunSet Swish

First base, it's me living an empty life so wrong

Heading to nowhere, drinking all night long

Then somebody told me, "Man, you better stop

You're going down, you need something to believe" On the second, I was building, castles in the air

Dreamed of a kingdom, I was never going to share

But it felt so empty, something should've come my way

Now I know and it's clear inside of me Here I stand again, I'm a gambler, I'm a man

It's my homerun, my homerun to you

Every life's a game and there's no one you can blame

This is my homerun, my homerun to you Third base saw me taking all her pictures from the wall

When love surrendered, I fell as deep as I could fall

And the fourth back to my music, to free this troubled mind

I found something after times of being blind Here I stand again, I'm a gambler, I'm a man

It's my homerun, my homerun to you

Every life's a game and there's no one you can blame

This is my homerun, my homerun to you I was searching, bleeding, I cried some tears of pain

I was yearning, screaming it all brought me back to you Here I stand again, I'm a gambler, I'm a man

It's my homerun, my homerun to you

Every life's a game and there's no one you can blame

This is my homerun, my homerun to you Here I stand again, I'm a gambler, I'm a man

It's my homerun, my homerun to you

Every life's a game and there's no one you can blame

This is my homerun, homerun
