

Love Gave Me More

Simply Red

You came, and how you've changed it
I've learned so much too
I've yearned so much for this
And now it's come true Hearts earn a little happiness, from how you give I've learned so much with you
I've learned how to live With a smile like a view on a magic garden
Eyes from the dew of a crystal dawn How can love give you more
How can love give me more
No shame to shout about it
No blame while love's so new I've turned the volume down
It just hurts without me
Hearts burn with loving passion
Heads turn to look at you
I'm sure yes very certain
I'll be gazing at you with With a smile like a view on a mystic garden
Eyes from the dew of a crystal dawn
A smile like a view on a wonderful morning
Eyes from the dew of a crystal dawn How can love give you more,
how can love give you more
How can love give me more,
how can love give me more
With a smile like a view on a mystic garden
Eyes from the dew of a crystal dawn How can love give you more,
how can love give you more
How can love give me more,
how can love give me more How can love give me more,
how can love give me more
