

My Last Words

Seasons After

I'm nothing more than poison, inject me in your veins
You were the one it feels like that got damned in the flames
The sickened side is where I hide, I won't make complications
So you should run when you hear the gun
I know it hurts but it's still truth
I'm not your saving grace To whom it may concern, I hope this letter reaches her
Please help me find a way to reach her at the end of earth
She understood the reason why I had to go
I wrote this letter just so she would know my last words were for her I don't deserve your caring words, my sickness turns them into hate
Your promise went from can to can't, watch my sanity dissipate
I feel my heart grow colder
You better run when you hear the gun
I know it hurts but it's still truth
I'm not your saving grace
To whom it may concern, I hope this letter reaches her
Please help me find a way to reach her at the end of earth
She understood the reason why I had to go
I wrote this letter just so she would know my last words were for her Words of sacrifice, words I am living by
Words of sacrifice, words I am living by
Words of sacrifice, words I am living by Words of sacrifice, words I am living by I know it hurts but it's still
I know it hurts but it's still truth
I'm not your saving grace To whom it may concern, I hope this letter reaches her
Please help me find a way to reach her at the end of earth
She understood the reason why I had to go
I wrote this letter just so she would know my last words
My last words were for her One last goodbye
