

Sexy Love

Kylie Minogue

There you go.
You're like fireworks and it's the fourth of July.
I can't turn away, look what you've done to me.
One more dance and I'm taking over,
I need your touch.
One more dance when you're lickin' your lips,
I'm gonna have to rush this night,
We should get outta here,
Might have to party for two,
Then you say you love me
That talk is dangerous
I want you like I know you want me
Am I saying too much?
Right now, say what you want to
You can't make me blush. Step through the door
Like you know you're fine
Step on my floor
Like you know you're fine
You're on fire
But you play it cool
Every eye on you So don't blame me
For wanting you just too much
You're sexy
And what you need's a sexy love
All I see
Every time I look at you
Is you are free
I just wanna be with you
Give me that sexy love You look so sexy, so sexy in my head
You look so sexy, so sexy in my bed
You look so sexy, so sexy in my head
You look so sexy, so sexy in my bed We got places to go
There's so much I wanna see
Let's make out on the low
And just focus on us
I want you to feel like you're having the time of your life
And I can't wait to start like you're waiting, accept my invite Step through the door
Like you know you're fine
Step on my floor

Like you know you're fine
You're on fire
But you play it cool
Every eye on you So don't blame me
For wanting you just too much
You're sexy
All I see
Every time I look at you
Is you are free
Give me that sexy love Oh-oh-oh
Don't play me I can't get enough
I just want your sexy love
Oh-oh-oh
Your body's all I'm thinking of
I just want your sexy love So don't blame me
You're sexy
All I see
Every time I look at you
Is you are free
Give me that sexy love You look so sexy, so sexy in my head
You look so sexy, so sexy in my bed
You look so sexy, so sexy in my head
You look so sexy, so sexy in my bed Give me that sexy love
Woah-oh-oh-oh (so sexy so sexy) Give me that sexy love
Woah-oh-oh-oh (so sexy so sexy)
Give me that sexy love
