Boney James

even though i know i can't be like you so what if you are better than me cause i know how to cope up with you doesn't mean i have ego with you...i need to fly fly up to the high sky needn't have to buy a pair of wings just had to dry my old wingsdon't cry if you failed to fly cause you flied wuth gratitude knowing you had wings not great ones but they still function the same as yours needn't had to brag to the world that you were better than me because i am in terms of your weaknesses cause i needn't fly with new wings just had to dry my old onesi loved the way i was born to be so what i can't change if you told me to my greatest happiness is derived through my fond memories
even though i know i can't be like you
cause i know how to cope up with you doesn't mean i have ego with you...
