

Warm It Up

Kris Kross

Warm it up, Kris, warm it up, Kris,
I'm about to. 'Cause that's what I was born to do.

Warm it up, Kris, warm it up, Kris.
I'm about to. 'Cause that 's what I was born to do.

So many times I heard your rhymes
But you can't touch this I'm kickin the type of flavor that makes ya say you're too much Kris So feel the fire of the one they call the Mack Daddy
the fire is what I pack and what I pack is real bad
I like to grab a hold of your soul and never let go
Till ya jump do the hump and say (Hoe)
Now that's the state of mind I'm in, Huh with rhyme after rhyme I win

The Mack (The Mack)
Known ta break 'em off somethin and lay
In a bed of funk keepin ya speaker pumpin
The miggada, miggada Mack came to get it warm
Wear my pants to the back, that's my uniform

ya lil cream puff mack daddy wanna be keep dreamin cause a mack you'll never be So all of ya'll with them Doctor Suess riddles you can get the finger () the middle

Warm it up, Kris, warm it up, Kris,
I'm about to. 'Cause that's what I was born to do.
Warm it up, Kris, warm it up, Kris.
I'm about to. 'Cause that 's what I was born to do.

Warm it up, Kris, warm it up, Kris,
I'm about to. 'Cause that's what I was born to do.
Warm it up, Kris, warm it up, Kris.

I'm about to. 'Cause that 's what I was born to do.

Caught you on the scope (the scope)!
Peepin out my rhyme cause it's dope (it's dope)!

And for you there's no hope

My name (is what)!

Daddy Mack baby

Totally crossed out catchin all ladies the age I be I should be playin with toys But instead I put my head into makin ya make noise

That's how I kick it that's my every day life and I rehearse to be sharp as a knife man

I'm the wrong brother for suckers to be messin with cause when I put my hand on a mic I start wreckin it

They call me the D.A. double D.Y. M. A. C. there ain't another brother bad as me

When I (let go)! Something from the (ghetto)! word
A lil brother kickin rhymes like ya never ever heard

Daddy of them all shootin to kill like a gun showing suckers how its done

Warm it up, Kris, warm it up, Kris,
I'm about to. 'Cause that's what I was born to do.
warm it up, Kris, warm it up, Kris.
I'm about to. 'Cause that 's what I was born to do.

Warm it up, Kris, warm it up, Kris,
I'm about to. 'Cause that's what I was born to do.
warm it up, Kris, warm it up, Kris.
I'm about to. 'Cause that 's what I was born to do.

So many times I heard your rhymes
But you can't touch this
