

Michael You've Got A Lot To Answer For

Duran Duran

I came over your place today
In a roundabout sort of way
Nothing holding me, just the company
Gentle giving the afternoon Don't ever try to be any more
Michael, you've got a lot to answer for
You unlocked some of the doors to my soul And I don't see you for awhile
Thinkin' of you will make me smile
You never bother me with responsibility
Misbehaving in candlelight Don't ever try to give any more
Michael, you've got a lot to answer for
You got me wakin' up wise to the world Trust you to get caught up in somebody's war
You'll come out of it all in time, I'm sure
Just remember what friends were put here for Michael, you've got a lot to answer for And I know that you're gonna call
If you need me, when you need me
If you need me
