

Reality and a Dream

Aura

Iâ€™m caught in between reality and a dream and I think I should apologize
For what Iâ€™ve been missing, have you been talking
I wasnâ€™t listening to you

Donâ€™t take offence Iâ€™m just not here
Iâ€™m somewhere else, caught in between
Reality and a dream somewhere else
In between
In between (Aaaah)

But Iâ€™ve come so far and got into much more than I ever asked for
And Iâ€™ve been so high in my life
And then Iâ€™ve been so low
But thereâ€™s one thing I know
I made it on my own
Donâ€™t take offence Iâ€™m just not here
Im somewhere else, caught in between
Reality and a dream somewhere else
In between
In between (Aaaah)

Iâ€™m being drawn into to the light
But I am being held back by the night
Everything I want is almost in my hands
But that bleeding from screaming, Iâ€™m dying
Hold on, thereâ€™s only little more to go
And Iâ€™m caught in between reality and a dream

Donâ€™t take offence Iâ€™m just not here
Iâ€™m somewhere else, caught in between
Reality and a dream somewhere else
In between
In between
Reality and a dream
Reality and a dream
Iâ€™m caught in between
Reality and a dream somewhere else

In between
