Frenzal Rhomb

You shook us all up, you tripped us all out
You wanna go out far, and I know you're a star
To tell you the truth, I didn't know it was you
Beyond the limit, so poorly lit It's alright, you can't see your face at all
It's alright, you can't see your Weren't so obscene, 'til the cinema queen
We weren't to know, put on quite a show It's alright, you can't see your face at all
It's alright, you can't see your face
It's alright, you can't see your face at all
It's alright, you can't see your And now my blood runs cold as my memory unfolds
In the background it was raining
Those familiar sounds bury my head in my hands
On the screen my face is smiling It's alright, you can't see your face at all
It's alright, you can't see your face
It's alright, you can't see your face at all
It's alright, you can't see your face And now my blood runs cold as my memory unfolds
In the background it was raining
Those familiar sounds bury my head in my hands
On the screen my face is smiling It's alright, it's alright, it's alright
It's alright, it's alright, it's alright
