

Rock & Roll Everynight

Little Feat

I wanna shake the floors, raise the roof
Don't shut me down, 'cause I'm livin' proof, I'm like the hurricane Daddy, ain't gonna turn you loose
Don't fight it, 'cause it ain't no use
Way back when, I was meek and mild
The boogie-woogie got me, turned the mild to wild
It threw me down, ain't got no strength to fight
I gotta rock & roll, baby, rock & roll everynight
Everynight, everynight, you can ride shotgun
And count the red tail lights
Everynight, everynight, you can roll the dice, take your chances
Hit the highway and roll your troubles away
Buckle your belts and don't be shy
We got a barrel-roll goin' and we're ready to fly
We can get there, we're lookin' at a non-stop flight
I wanna rock & roll, baby, I'm feelin' like dynamite
Everynight, everynight, you can ride shotgun
And count the red tail lights
Everynight, everynight, you can roll the dice, take your chances
Hit the highway and roll your troubles away
Front and center
Doctor'll give you a thrill
I'm gonna give you a shot
And cure all you'all's ills
Come on everybody let's get up let's go
Meet me tonight, after the show, keep op with my tail lights
We're headin' on down the road
It's a shortcut to hell but we got a long way to go
Everynight, everynight, you can ride shotgun
And count the red tail lights
Everynight, everynight, you can roll the dice, take your chances
Hit the highway and roll your troubles away
