

Break It Down

Brett Fuentes

Bad Men will tell you lies
Hide 'em up in a big disguise
Tell the lie until it's true
And lord knows they are watching you I'm gonna break it down gonna break it down for you now Classist and crazed we are Masters control from afar
Cell phones scatter like a plague
Daytime drama for the NSA Gonna break it down
You have underestimated this man
Gonna break it down
Feeling free now gonna get my wings
Let the rage be known through what I sing They'll make it hard, so hard to be free
Let the rage be known, gonna get my wings There you are with a snarling tooth
Who can never seem to tell the truth
Patiently my ma she waits
But the future looks bleak for me I'm gonna break it down
You have underestimated this man
I'm gonna break it down
Time for the truth to be known as document
Counter your counter-intelligence THEY'LL MAKE IT HARD, SO HARD TO BE FREE
LET THE RAGE BE KNOWN, GONNA GET MY WINGS
