

The Wedding Song

David Bowie

These are silver wings
These are golden eyes
These are floating clouds
Angel for life Dreaming alone
And I feel that someone
Listens to me
Angel for life These are silver wings
These are golden eyes
These are floating clouds
Angel for life Heaven is smiling down
Heavens girl in a wedding gown
I'm gonna be so good
Just like a good boy should
I'm gonna change my ways
Angel for life Of all the saints alive
Don't I feel like a saint alive
She's not mine for eternity
Though I'll never fly so high
I'm smiling I believe in magic
Angel for life In magic
Angel for life
I believe in magic
Angel for life In magic
Angel for life
I believe in magic
