Dear to Me

Amel Larrieux

As gravity is to every human
As the earth is to the trees
I couldn't drift away from your love
Because it's implanted in my memoryIf there was some uncertaintyYou're dear to me, you know who you are Always here with me, you know who you are
You're dear to me and I hope you know who you areWatching you slumber drawn to the splendor
Of your face when it's completely still
Standing under the flood of your laughter
Into every cell in me you spillAfter you everything else is weakYou're dear to me, you know who you are
You're always here with me, you know who you are You're dear to me and I hope you know who you are
I hope you know who you areOut of, out of my hands you seeYou're dear to me, you know who you are
You're always here with me, you know who you are
You're dear to me, you know who you are
You're always here with me, you know who you are
You're dear to me, you know who you are
You're dear to me, I hope you know who you areAnd I hope you know who you are
And I hope you know who you are
And I hope you know who you are
And I hope you know who you are
Who you are, who you are, who you are
