Glorious Land

Sabaton

Endless waste,
Our patience runs thin
Here we stand ready,
Let the battle begin!(Hit, back, charge!)
As their forces arrive
(Shove, go, push!)
Leave no foes left alive!Facing the storm, battered and torn,
Fighting for our Glorious Land!
Come, take our hand, together we stand,
Defending our Glorious Land!Darkness falls
And the screams fade away
Home of the fallen,
And home of the brave!Facing the storm, battered and torn,
Fighting for our Glorious Land!
Come, take our hand, together we stand,
Defending our Glorious Land!Facing the storm, battered and torn,
Fighting for our Glorious Land!
Come, take our hand, together we stand,
Defending our Glorious Land!Facing the storm, battered and torn,
Fighting for our Glorious Land!
Come, take our hand, together we stand,
Defending our Glorious Land!
