The Exciter

Poisonblack

You're under my skin the poison within
Diabolical rapture that's dripping with sin
Break down my will, a kiss for the kill
Bury me deep between death and the thrillYour name is desire, loins of fire
The lust incarnate, an angel, a liar
Break down my will, a kiss for the kill
Bury me deep between death and the thrillLet glow red the poison sun and the flame to make me numb
Let me hear the words which I have been dying to hear
Burn my fingers one by one, guide me down into the sun
Let me show you how I crave to make you comeYou looked at me deep and made me weep
You gave me my sin, my soul you now keep
Broke down my will, kissed for the kill
Buried me deep between death and the thrill
