Grown

Amber Garsia

Out the door
Just another kid
I won't try to pretend
Thought I knew atleast I think I did
But this is just my beginning

But if you give me room to grow
Sure I'll stumble but I'll know
The difference from last time
The lesson learned on my own
I'm stronger and not just cause you
Told me so

Not trying to hide
But I wish you would
Used to change my mind
Thought I knew atleast I thought I did this is still my beginning

Guess some people never know
At first I'm sure then there I go
The difference from last time
The lesson learned on my own I'm Stronger and not just cause you told me so

The lessons I'm learning the chances I'm taking now
There's no second guessing I've only got myself now

The difference from last time
The lessons learned on my own
I'm stronger and not just cause you
Told me so
The difference from last time the lesson learned on my own I'm stronger and not just cause you told me so
The difference from last time the lesson learned on my own I'm stronger and not
